SENCO – Job Advert

Location: Marish Academy Trust, Slough, SL3

Contract: Full time

Salary: M1-UP3, depending on experience

Are you an inspiring individual who can drive excellence and nurture an inclusive, positive school culture? Marish Academy Trust are seeking a dynamic SENCO to join our dedicated team and strengthen the support provided within we provide to ensure all our students thrive. This role is ideal for an exceptional teacher who is qualified and an experienced SENCO. You will be supported by an outstanding Trust leadership team who offer excellent opportunities for mentorship, leadership development, and guidance in a supportive and secure environment.

About Us:

Marish Academy Trust is a supportive, diverse and ambitious Trust, committed to developing every child's potential. We are proud of our inclusive culture, our strong community links and our track record of high academic achievement and pupil well-being.

The Role:

The role involves coordinating SEND provision, maintaining accurate records, analysing assessment data, and advising staff on inclusive and differentiated teaching strategies. The SENCO will work closely with pupils, parents/carers, external agencies and the local authority to secure appropriate support, including contributing to EHCP processes and ensuring smooth transitions.

As a member of the senior leadership team, the SENCO will support staff development through training and guidance, lead and manage teaching assistants, and promote an inclusive ethos in line with the Equality Act 2010. The role also includes a strong safeguarding focus, working closely with the DSL to support the welfare of pupils with SEND.

What We Offer:

- A welcoming and supportive staff team
- Excellent opportunities for professional growth and leadership development
- A vibrant school community with engaged pupils and families
- Commitment to staff well-being and work-life balance
